

The Equality Commission and the Centre for Contemporary Dance (CCD) at the University for Music and Dance in Cologne are awarding in 2025 one

Research scholarship for the Research Centre in Dance Studies in the amount of 3.000 €

The Research Centre in Dance Studies (CCD) is interested in supporting high quality and interdisciplinary research in Dance Studies that explicitly works with the archival collection of the German Dance Archive Cologne.

Following applications will be considered:

National and international doctoral candidates and scholars who combine the historical research with gender specific questions or methodologies.

Applicants should complete the following application document (see below), and provide a research exposé (5-10 pages), C.V. with a list of publications and information regarding their current institutional affiliation. The deadline for application this year is April 14.

Applications to: gleichstellung@hfmt-koeln.de

The scholarship is bound to a residency of 4-6 weeks in Cologne, ideally in the following time slots (Oct.-Jan or Apr.-June). Researchers will be part of the research colloquium and are asked to offer a presentation, discussion or workshop on their individual research, in the context of the CCD or the program of the Dance Archive Cologne. This scholarship seeks to support an exchange of knowledge from innovative research into dance studies and dance dissemination practices. The residency has to begin in 2025.
